

As an amateur radio operator (K6YLG), I strongly oppose the transmissison of RF energy over power lines. The resulting interference will be the death knell of a hobby I've enjoyed since 1954. I'm not an alarmist, but I strongly believe that to be true.